CF. Vatterott Construction Company is giving back to the St. Louis Community by donating to the BackStoppers, Inc.

St. Louis, MO - CF. Vatterott Construction Company is giving back to the City of St. Louis with a new home buying incentive for all St. Louis City Police, Fire and Rescue personnel. As a thank you to all the men & women who keep our city safe, CF. Vatterott not only has introduced new more affordable home plans, but will donate $500 to the BackStoppers, Inc. at closing for every Police, Fire & Rescue personnel who buy in one of our 6 City of St. Louis communities.

CF. Vatterott has been dedicated to the revitalization of St. Louis over many decades as one of the largest builders in the City, building in and developing areas such as Gaslight Square, St. Vincent Park, Old North St. Louis and with 4 current city communities, and 2 coming soon there is something for everyone. Vatterott Construction is celebrating its 90th year as one of St. Louis's premier home builders by rolling out many promotions making it even easier to own a beautiful new home in the city.

“CF. Vatterott has always been committed to providing quality and affordable housing in the City of St. Louis. In tough economic times like these, supporting the local community, especially an organization like BackStoppers, is as important as ever. We want the St. Louis Police, Fire and Rescue personnel who work in the city to be able to call the city their home too,” says Greg Echols, the community sales manager at West End Estates.

CF. Vatterott's two most popular city neighborhoods are West End Estates & Boulevard Heights. Both master planned communities boast rich & architecturally attractive exteriors and interiors. The homes also have the historical details and the charm you can only find in the city, yet with all the energy efficiencies and modern interiors of new construction.

West End Estates can be found in the growing location between the Delmar Loop and Central West End on the path of the new Loop Trolley. With new plans, prices and promotions, West End Estates is more affordable then ever starting at just $180,000.

Boulevard Heights is located in desirable South St. Louis City two blocks away from historic Carondelet Park with plans starting at $210,000. At both locations, single family homes and townhomes are available for new construction as well as fantastic selections of Fast Track inventory homes if you need a home in a hurry.
